WABA Statutes Board proposal of change on art 19

Art. 19 Grounds: new text added on red and on yellow highlighted

1. The above-mentioned sanctions (art. 18) may be taken if:

a) a member repeatedly violates obligations arising from the statutes, regulations, codes of conduct (codes of ethics, commitments, etc), other legally binding decisions of WABA Board and Committees and WABR;

b) a member does not meet its financial obligations, after a simple written reminder.

c) a member harms and/or endangers - by its behaviour and/or any other way - WABA's image or interests.

d) abuse of rights or malicious litigation: The repeated filing of WABA proceedings may constitute an abuse of rights if done to manipulate or pressure jurisdictive outcomes or aimed only at coercing a settlement.
